

GEN. WOOD ORDERS INVESTIGATION OF 'SPREAD-EAGLE'

Charges of Short Rations and Mistreatment Also to Be Taken Up.

Col. T. Q. Donaldson, of the staff of Major-Gen. Wood, was assigned to-day to conduct an investigation into the admitted "spread-eagle"

GUARDSMAN LASHED TO A CANNON WHEEL IN 'SPREAD-EAGLE' POSITION

MAX KELLERMAN

punishment administered on Tuesday to Private Max Kellerman of the Second Battalion, Second Field Artillery, in the armory at One Hundred and Sixty-sixth Street and Franklin Avenue, the Bronx.

The investigation, while it starts with Kellerman as the subject, will certainly go into charges made by privates that four others were lashed to the wheels of gun carriages in "spread-eagle" fashion, that the funds provided for rations have been improperly used and that the men have been mistreated in many ways not only since their return to New York but while on duty at the border and en route home.

Lieut. Col. Hines of the Second Battalion, issued a long statement today upholding the action of Lieut.
Frank Spencer, who ordered the "spread-eagle" punishment. It appears that the responsibility is up to Spencer, who joined the regiment shortly before it left for the border and was promoted rapidly while at McAllen, Texas. Lieut. Col. Hines, it appears, was not consulted by Lieut. Spencer in the matter of Kel-lerman's alleged insubordination, and ordered Kellerman's release as soon as he heard of the incident.

Kellerman is nineteen years old.
His father, August, a butcher at No.
1060 Ogden Avenue, has retained a lawyer to look after the interests of the boy. Inasmuch as the Major General commanding the Department of the East has taken charge of the matter and ordered an investigation the lawyer has postponed an intention, announced last night, of taking the case to Secretary of War Baker.
It appears just now that the regular army will make the Kellerman case an opening through which a concerted attack may be made on the militia system, while Major-Gen.
O'Ryan and the National Guard officers of the State will be forced to tacitly endorse the obsolete "spread-eagle" punishment if they are consistent in upholding the National Guard as a section of a defensive army. The strapping to a gun carriage of the son of a Bronx butcher is likely to have far reaching effects.

Col. Donaldson's investigation probably will bring out that the Second Battalion of the Second Field Artillery is a badly disorganized body. Not only are a majority of the privates in almost open revolt against their officers, but the officers are not in harmony among themselves. It became known to-day that Capt. Wilbur T.
Wright of B Battery, ordered the arrest last night of Dean Nelson, one of his lieutenants, on a charge of insubordination.

Lieut. Nelson was officer of the day yesterday. He left the army in the afternoon and on his return was charged by his Captain with being absent from duty without permission.

What Lieut. Nelson said to Capt.
Wright was highly edifying to the privates within earshot. Lieut. Nelson was paroled after his arrest.

The Second Battalion will be mustered out of the regular service tomorrow, according to Capt. Gilbreth, in charge of the arrangements. The fact that the battalion will then go back into the National Guard will not halt the investigation, as Col. Donaldson has power to inquire into any matters connected with the battalion while it was part of the regular army.

Schiff Gives $100,000 to Red Cross.

The American Red Cross is richer to-day by a $100,000 check presented yesterday by Jacob H. Schiff on the occasion of his seventieth birthday. The financier stipulates that two-thirds of the amount shall be used to relieve want in the Entente countries and one-third for the same purpose in the countries of the Central Powers.

CANADA URGED TO GIVE KNOCK OUT TO DEMON RUM

Premier Gets Demands for Complete Suppression Until Three Years After War.

OTTAWA, Ont., Jan. 11.—Demands for complete suppression of liquor traffic in Canada were made upon the Government to-day, first by temperance associations and second by "the women of Canada." Each represented to Premier Borden that liquor in Canada should be forbidden until three years after the war, as an alternative, that a referendum be taken before next June.

Premier Borden promised the Government would give serious consideration to a federal law which would entirely extinguish the liquor traffic.
